

LYRIC WORKSHOP WEEK – 3 JULY to 7 JULY

CALLING ALL BAME ARTISTS

Opera is a place where music, theatre and dance meet. The perfect platform for telling diverse stories in diverse ways. We are looking for music-makers, theatre-makers and writers from a BAME background who are interested in exploring new possibilities in this most vibrant and flexible genre.

This is an opportunity to;

- explore how your practice could relate to opera's history and its potential
- work with singers and musicians to explore the possibilities of the voice
- meet potential collaborators and share experience
- develop your ideas and receive feedback on them

We want to bring together both established and emerging artists to sow seeds for future collaborations.

Join us at the Lyric Hammersmith for a week-long exploration of how you could make the opera that you would want to see.

Where:	Lyric Hammersmith, London
When:	Monday 3 July – Friday 7 July
Who:	Writers, Composers, Directors, Theatre-Makers
Cost:	Free
Expenses:	Travel & Accommodation for participants from outside London

How to apply:

You can either complete the on-line application form via the following link:

<https://www.surveycrest.com/s/590b3799c7553>

Or send a scanned copy of the attached short expression of interest form (along with a short CV) to rachel.lerman@roh.org.uk by Friday 26th May.

If you'd like to know more please contact Rachel Lerman at 020 3772 6443 or rachel.lerman@roh.org.uk.

LYRIC WORKSHOP WEEK – 3 JULY to 7 JULY

Name: _____

Email: _____

Tel: _____

Address: _____

PLEASE ATTACH A SHORT CV

What do you hope to get from the week?

How did you hear about the workshop?

Link to own/work website (optional):

Once completed, send this form along with a short CV to rachel.lerman@roh.org.uk by Friday 26th May.